Luckily, Japanese can sleep soundly in their beds tonight as the government's top military official earnestly revealed that the country's Air Self Defense Force (ASDF) had never encountered an extrater restrial unidentified flying object. Responding to a query from flam boy ant former wrestler-turned-law maker Antonio In oki, Defense Minister Gen Nak at ani told the Diet, Japan's parliament, that his jets had, to date, never come across any UFOs from outer space.